

Police Hold Man After Fire Probe

George Saunders, Jr., of Wallkill Is Held on Second Degree Arson Charge
Is Questioned
Officers Say Former Attempts Were Made to Break Case

The arrest Saturday of George Saunders, Jr., 31, of Wallkill, on a charge of arson, second degree, according to state police and the sheriff's office, has at last brought to book the man responsible for some half a dozen mysterious fires in the village of Wallkill, during the period of over a year. Saunders was arraigned Saturday afternoon before Justice Seth C. Lippincott of Wallkill, waived examination and was committed to the Ulster county jail to await the action of the grand jury.

The fire which brought about Saunders' arrest—he had been questioned on the occasion of previous fires, but had not been held—was discovered about 11 o'clock Friday night by several young people who were passing Saunders' home in Wallkill and noticed that the chicken coop at the rear of the house was on fire. They spoke to Saunders, who was sitting on the front porch, and he helped them put out the fire before it had gained much headway.

About three hours afterward, Troopers Metzger and Baker of the B.C.I. took Saunders into custody as a suspect. He was brought to the Ulster county court house for questioning. Joining in the investigation and questioning, in addition to Troopers Metzger, Baker, Reilly and Judge of the B.C.I., were Sheriff Howard C. Anderson, Deputy Sheriff Vredenburg, and District Attorney N. LeVan Haver.

Made Statement
Trooper Reilly said this morning that Saunders, who at one time was a fire traffic policeman in Wallkill, was questioned for several hours and finally "broke" and made a statement in which he acknowledged that he had set fires in Wallkill on at least five different occasions during the past year or more. He said that he was an epileptic and that setting the fires helped his nervous condition.

Saunders also admitted that he had been obtaining "dope" through a mail order house. He is married and has two children.

Fires, in addition to that Friday night, which Saunders admitted having set were:
May 6, 1941. A chicken coop at the rear of the Terwilliger & Sloan grocery store in Wallkill. Fire was put out before doing much damage.

June 20, 1941. Set fire to the rear of the Terwilliger & Sloan grocery store. Set fire to the town clerk's office nearby and did considerable damage.

February 1, 1942. Set two fires (Continued on Page Three)

Wreck of Freight Trains Holds Up Sunday Schedule

Nine Cars Reported Thrown Off Tracks on West Shore Line South of Newburgh
A tail-end collision between two freight trains on the West Shore Railroad at New Windsor Saturday evening about 9:45 o'clock tied up both mainline tracks and disrupted schedules to the extent that many local people received their Sunday paper several hours late.

The collision at New Windsor, south of Newburgh, occurred when a freight train classified as W D 3 rammed into the tail-end of another freight, the WV 1, both bound north.

It is reported that nine cars of the WV 1 were derailed, scattering over both mainline tracks and ripping out some of the track. Wrecking crews and steam cranes from Kingston and Weehawken were dispatched to the scene, and traffic was restored to normal late Sunday.

Railroad officials had no comments to make concerning the wreck, and the cause has not been determined, but it was learned that one local man, D. J. Cuff of Clinton avenue, was the conductor of WV 1. No serious injuries were reported.

Blocking of the mainline by the wreck, caused the re-routing of Train 19, which arrives in Kingston normally at 2:05 a.m., over the Wallkill Valley branch, and Train 17, the Sunday "paper train" arriving in Kingston about four hours late.

U.S.O. Fund Drive Starts Here Today

Ulster County Quota is $28,500; Sections Have Been Formed By Townships
Meeting Tonight
City Committee Will Meet Tonight at Court House

The 1942 U. S. O. War Fund Campaign in Ulster county opens today and will be continued throughout this month, ending on July 6. The quota for Ulster county is $28,500 of which $12,000 is the quota for the city of Kingston. In order to provide spiritual and recreational service for the men now in our armed forces the U. S. O. will raise in the United States the sum of $32,000,000 to carry on the year's work.

In the city of Kingston E. Frank Flanagan has been named by County Chairman Judge J. Edward Conway to take charge of the city campaign and Mr. Flanagan has called a meeting of the city committee for this evening at 7:30 o'clock at the court house to organize the city and present plans to carry on the work. All committeemen are asked to attend this meeting when final instructions for the canvass of the city will be issued.

The county sections have been organized by townships with a town chairman appointed to supervise the work in the township. Chairman Conway has also designated in the various towns campaign committees to be composed of the committeemen of the two major political parties. These people know their own townships and with the aid of other solicitors will make a canvass of every home. However, if no solicitor calls contributions may be sent to the town chairman or directly to County Treasurer Chester A. Lyons who has consented to act as treasurer of the U. S. O. fund.

Tuesday evening from 7:30 until 7:45 County Chairman J. Edward Conway will open the campaign on the air when he and Frederick Stang, chairman of the committee on speakers, will talk over the Kingston station. On Wednesday evening from 6:05 until 6:15 Mr. Stang, Ray Mino and William Kelly will discuss the U. S. O. drive and its purposes over station WKNY.

The committee on speakers announced by Chairman Conway is: Frederick H. Stang, chairman; Louis G. Bruhn, Joseph M. Campbell, John M. Cashin, Martin F. Comeau, Andrew J. Cook, Chris J. Flanagan, Theodore J. Goldman, Peter H. Harp, N. LeVan Haver, Charles F. Kaiser, William A. Kelly, Francis Martocci, Raymond J. Mino, Thomas J. Plunkett, George Rusk, John F. Wadlin and Roger H. Loughran.

Home-Seekers' in Federal Home Loan
Certificate of Membership Has Been Received
The Home-seekers' Savings and Loan Association of Kingston has been accepted by the Federal Home Loan Bank of New York as a member by the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration and a certificate of membership was received last week. Admission to the Federal Home Loan Bank is made only after a very careful investigation of the applicant and on recommendation of the board of directors.

In the letter from President Nugent Fallon to the Home-seekers' Savings and Loan Association of Kingston a very complimentary tribute to the management of the local Savings and Loan Association was paid. President Fallon in notifying the association of its acceptance in the system said: "Our examination of the affairs of your association reveals a few points in which we believe that you, as directors, should be interested. For example, we wish to compliment you upon the fact that substantially all of your mortgages are home mortgages. The experience of many years has shown that this is the safest type of mortgage security, for the handling of which savings and loan associations are particularly well equipped."

U. S. Wrests Initiative From Japan In Battle of Pacific; Britain Warns Residents of French Coast to Evacuate

Cologne After R. A. F. Raid

Following the R. A. F.'s 1,000-plane bombing raid on Cologne, a British reconnaissance plane made the photo (above), which was cabled from London to New York. The section photographed is part of the city's old town in the heavily bombed business area. The British said the cathedral (top right) appears to have escaped all but superficial blast damage. The street running from the left to top right of the photo is the Hohestrasse, described in Baedeker's guide book as the busiest street in Cologne. The famed cathedral's upper structure throws a heavy shadow. Most of the buildings at lower center and right are roofless, gutted by fire with only shells remaining, giving a honeycomb effect.

Mayor Criticized by Officers Of Civil Service Convention

Four Gallons of Gas Weekly Under System Next Month
Washington, June 8 (AP)—East coast motorists will get an average basic ration of nearly four gallons of gasoline a week under the regular coupon-book system starting next month, Joel Dean, O. P. A. fuel rationing administrator, said today.

Under the present temporary program, non-essential drivers are allowed about three gallons weekly.

Dean told reporters the additional ration would be permitted because of tighter controls made possible under the new plan. Considerably fewer "B" coupons will be issued, Dean explained, since motorists will be required to provide need for supplemental allowances.

They must show to the satisfaction of local rationing boards that use of their cars is required in their businesses, that they have formed transportation "pools" of not less than four persons, or that no other means of transportation is available to get them to and from work.

The east coast plan, expected to serve as a model if nation-wide rationing is instituted, is based on an allowance of 2,880 miles of driving a year for the average "non-essential" motorist.

Basic "A" books will be issued to every passenger-car driver who registers. These will contain 48 coupons, each good for four gallons of gasoline.

The "B" books, containing 16 coupons, will be issued on evidence of need and will be used in addition to the basic "A" books. Each "B" book, however, will be dated, depending upon the local ration (Continued on Page Eight)

Secretary Says Group Unlikely to Come Here While Edelmuth Is in Office
It is not likely that Kingston will again be chosen as the convention city to entertain the Civil Service Association of the state of New York, judging from the criticism freely expressed by officers and delegates at the picnic that marked the close of the 34th annual convention here on Sunday.

The greater part of the criticism was leveled at Mayor William F. Edelmuth, and was directed at the arrangements made for the entertainment of the delegates while in the city.

"We won't be back as long as Edelmuth is mayor" said Secretary Edward J. O'Neill, and John J. Conklin of Brooklyn, chairman of the speaker's committee, expressed similar sentiments.

Secretary O'Neill said that while the business sessions of the convention were a decided success the social part of the program was not up to the level of the previous two conventions held in Kingston by the association.

"Where were the boxing bouts we were promised?" asked O'Neill "and why was not Alderman Paul Zucca's orchestra engaged to furnish the music for the annual dance as in former years? The mayor was not present at our dance and he gave no explanation as to why the bouts were not held. He is not even at the picnic."

"Yes," said Mr. Conklin, "and the delegates had desired the opportunity of becoming acquainted with the new mayor of Kingston, but they never had the opportunity. Your former mayor met with us at our social functions, and helped in making the social end of the program a success."

Another criticism was that there was a lack of busses to convey the delegates to and from the picnic, held as usual on the grounds of the Twaalfskill Golf Club. Secretary O'Neill pointed out that but one bus was furnished and that it required three trips each way in order to take care of the delegates. "And on top of that," said O'Neill, "the delegates had to pay their own bus fare. They did not object to that so much as the fare was but 10 cents each way, but it was the principle of the thing. In other years the busses were furnished free to the delegates."

"You can say for me," concluded O'Neill, "that O'Neill is still sore."

Atlantic Losses Are Listed at 252 On New Sinkings
(By The Associated Press)
On the bottom of the Western Atlantic vessels of allied and neutral registry, downed by submarines totaled 252 today by official navy announcement as 25 new victims were reported last week and yesterday have been sunk by undersea wolf packs on the prow from Canada to South America.

The casualty list for the attacks announced last week was 105 persons dead and 44 missing. Some 880 seamen and passengers survived the sinkings.

Losses reported last week included 10 U. S. ships, seven British, three Norwegian, one Brazilian, one Panamanian, one Dutch and one unidentified allied vessel. Another U. S. ship was reported yesterday as a recent victim.

The enemy submarines picked off 10 newly announced victims off the U. S. east coast to swell to 120 their total for that area since Pearl Harbor.

One sinking in Canadian waters brought the war total there to 34, while in warmer climes nine more boosted to 68 the number of Caribbean sinkings, three more in the Gulf of Mexico made that total 16 and two more off South America raised that to 14.

At least one submarine got a taste of its own medicine during the week's sea warfare when the American merchant vessel Atenas sank in the Gulf of Mexico and outraced a second undersea raider to reach port only slightly damaged, according to a description of the encounter in La Tribuna, San Jose, Costa Rica, newspaper.

Republicans Favor $50 Month Scale
LaFollette Would Upset Compromise on $46
Washington, June 8 (AP)—Strong Republican support for a $50 a month minimum pay scale in the armed forces added weight today to an effort by Senator LaFollette (Prog., Wis.) to upset a joint Senate-House conference committee's compromise on $46.

Although Senator Austin of Vermont, the assistant minority leader, was delegated to submit the joint committee's report, there were indications that most of his Republican colleagues would vote against the compromise.

American Victory Off Midway Is of Vast Importance

With Naval Operations Around Dutch Harbor, We Should Restrain Our Enthusiasm
By DeWITT MACKENZIE (Wide World War Analyst)

The smashing American victory over the Japs off our base at Midway—an atoll that is minute in size but vast in defensive importance—must have far-reaching and perhaps decisive effects on the battle of the Pacific, which the men of Nippon started six months ago and now are finding difficult to finish when we are on the alert.

Indeed, on the face of returns thus far, so heavy is the punishment administered to the enemy off Midway that one has the rather justifiable urge to wave the flag a bit. However, naval operations also are proceeding off Dutch Harbor, and we shall do well to restrain our enthusiasm until we have the whole story.

While some points still are obscure, we get a fairly comprehensive picture of the general situation to date by combining the statements from Admiral King, commander in chief of the United States fleet, Admiral Nimitz, commander in chief of the Pacific fleet, and news dispatches from informed American headquarters. If you please will refer to your maps we shall try to reconstruct the position.

The Japanese, combining necessity with strategic speculation, plotted to restore their prestige, shattered by their defeat in the Coral Sea and our unprecedented bombing raid over Tokyo and other cities of Nippon. They picked Midway and Dutch Harbor as the subjects of their attention.

In making this selection, the Japs figured that they could at least repair their damaged reputation by a hit-and-run bombing of these two bases, and if things went well they might develop the attacks into major operations. The point is that both islands are of vast strategic value.

The midjet Midway is the outpost of Hawaii and Pearl Harbor, and since the latter is the key to the Pacific, the little atoll becomes a mighty important part of the defenses of North America. If the Japs could capture it they would have secured a base from which they could raid Pearl Harbor. What is more important, they would have had a base from which they could launch a major offensive, with our west coast and the Panama Canal as ultimate objectives.

Sentinel Over Life-Line
But that isn't all. You will note that Midway is a sentinel over our life-line to Australia, and possession of the island would facilitate Nipponese efforts to cut our shipping routes and thus cripple this continental base which is a rapidly growing menace to consolidation of the Mikado's conquest.

Dutch Harbor, set down amidst the fogs and violent storms of the Far North, bars the northwest route to Alaska. In other words it is the guardian of the northwest approach to this continent.

Thus in attacking Midway and Dutch Harbor the Nipponese were aiming blows at vital spots. The enemy may hope that he could spring a surprise and not only carry out the face-saving raids but capture at least Midway. The great strength massed for the operation against the atoll is clear indication of the Japanese ambitions.

But fate played a trick of its own. The American high command, being blessed with acumen and knowledge of Jap psychology, knew for a certainty that a face-saving operation would be undertaken. Thus we were ready for the attack, and the descendants of the Shoguns walked into a trap at Midway.

At Least 3 Ships Sunk, 13 or More Damaged as Against Loss of 1 American Destroyer Hit Australia

Russian-German Battle Centers on Sevastopol, Naval Base
By CLYDE A. FARNSWORTH Associated Press War Editor

The United States, toughened and tried by six months of largely defensive warfare since Pearl Harbor now seems to have wrested the initiative from Japan in the battle of the Pacific, at the same time readying for active entry into the battle of Europe.

With what was perhaps a significant reference to the handicap which the presence of civilians sometimes imposes on operations of land forces—"particularly, of friendly troops"—Britain called today upon the population of French coastal belt, from Belgium to Spain, to evacuate the zone at all costs.

"We do not underestimate the difficulties of such an evacuation nor the obstacles which will be presented," the British radio said in a notice beamed to the German-conquered Frenchmen in their own language.

"If we urge you to overcome them it is because it affects the success of operations of capital importance in the struggle for the liberation of France."

This cryptic warning shared international attention with the victory won by the United States on the Midway approach to her mid-Pacific bastion, the Hawaiian Islands.

The hard face of Admiral Isoroku Yamamoto, commander of the Japanese combined fleet, must indeed be red today for having sent the bulk of his naval power into the destructive trap at Midway Island—a stumble that may have recast the balance of naval power in the Pacific.

The powerful Japanese task force evidently was under orders to occupy Midway Island as a stepping stone in eastward offensive strategy which combined sea and air power of the United States struck it last week and started running up a score which, at latest tabulation, added up to the most humiliating defeat in Japanese naval history.

At least three Japanese ships sunk and 13 or more damaged as against hits on an American aircraft carrier and loss of one American destroyer was the tally last night when Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, commander in chief of the U. S. Pacific fleet, announced that contact with the battered, fleeing enemy had been lost.

Pursuit Not Abandoned
This, however, did not mean that pursuit had been abandoned. The rolling horizons of the Pacific veiled the course of the chase. (Continued on Page Two)

Debt Clouds
State Mayors' Head Warns That Debts of Cities Must Be Reduced
Syracuse, N. Y., June 8 (AP)—The president of the New York State Conference of Mayors foresaw today "more dark clouds than bright spots" on the financial horizon for municipalities.

Addressing the opening session of the 33rd annual meeting of the conference, Utica's Mayor Vincent R. Corrou pointed in a prepared address to improvement in the financial condition of cities and villages in the last year. But he warned that debt must be reduced and urged formulation of a detailed post-war program.

Once Mighty Jap Naval Force Limp Westward In Desperate Defeat

Likely Greatest Single Victory of American Naval History; Many Congratulations

By WALTER B. CLAUSEN

Pearl Harbor, June 8 (AP)—A once mighty Japanese naval force, reported to constitute the bulk of that country's sea power, today limped westward in desperate retreat from Midway Island, its proud units pounded by an American defense turned into a shattering offense.

"The enemy appears to be withdrawing," said Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, commander in chief of the Pacific fleet. "Contact was lost during last night."

But even should the Japanese make good their escape, it will be only at the cost of at least three warships sunk, 13 or more others damaged and the virtually complete destruction of their projecting air arm.

Against this formidable score, the only announced American losses in equipment were one destroyer sunk by a submarine, one aircraft carrier hit by a bomb and some planes missing.

Loss of the U. S. destroyer was acknowledged in the same communiqué in which Nimitz told of the enemy's apparent withdrawal. But it was offset by official word that a Japanese submarine had been sent to the bottom and that additional damage had been inflicted on two enemy cruisers.

The crew of the lost U. S. destroyer, Nimitz said, was picked up by other ships "with small loss of life." The admiral was uncertain whether the report of fresh damage to Japanese cruisers referred to further hits on vessels previously damaged or represented entirely new successes.

As the three-day battle of the central Pacific seemed to be nearing its finish in what was likely the greatest single victory of American naval history, messages of congratulation began to arrive at Nimitz' headquarters here.

Great Enthusiasm

"The splendid victory at Midway has aroused the greatest enthusiasm throughout this area," General Douglas MacArthur advised the admiral from Australia. "The prime minister of Australia has asked me to join his felicitations. My own pride and satisfaction are boundless. We will not fail."

From Lieut. Gen. J. L. DeWitt, commanding general of the western defense command and Fourth Army at San Francisco, came this message:

"To the commander in chief of the Pacific fleet and all his officers and men this command extends hearty congratulations on the success of your forces and desires to express its admiration for the gallant action by all arms in the decisive repulse of the enemy attack on Midway. May the final outcome be enemy annihilation."

Nimitz' communiqué announcing the Japanese retreat augmented three previous reports telling a story of mounting disaster for the enemy. It came on a day which, the admiral said, found the Hawaiian area quiet except for minor submarine activity, in sharp contrast to the date six months before when Japan started war in the Pacific with its attack on Pearl Harbor.

Nimitz in earlier communiqués reported the sinking of two and perhaps three Japanese aircraft carriers and the destruction or damage of at least 13 other enemy warships.

He said that all the planes on the two definitely sunk carriers were lost and that one or two other enemy carriers were damaged with the loss of most of their planes.

Other enemy warships listed as casualties were three battleships damaged, one heavily; four cruisers damaged, two heavily; three transports damaged, and the destroyer reported sunk in last night's communiqué. The same announcement said it was not yet determined whether the two cruisers were in addition to cruisers reported damaged in earlier reports. Nimitz said some of the enemy warships damaged were so thoroughly battered they may not be able to reach their bases.

Britain Continues Daylight Raids

Attack Targets Over Hitler's Channel Ports

London, June 8 (AP)—Hundreds of fighting planes and fighter-bombers from the scores of airfields of Britain swept in a series of thrusts over Hitler's channel ports and defenses today, continuing the regular daylight offensive which has accompanied the R. A. F.'s heavy bombing drive.

British warplanes attacked targets in northern France and Holland last night and damaged a German ship off the Frisian Islands, the air ministry announced, but bad weather over the continent kept the R. A. F. from following up its Saturday night assault on Emden with another massed raid upon Germany.

All the planes were participated in the overnight operations returned safely to their bases, a communiqué said.

Fighter command planes which carried out the sweeps over France were reported to have bombed a railway yard near Caen and shot up a train at Montdidier, 21 miles southeast of Amiens. A lone bomber also attacked the German airfield at Leeuwarden, Holland, 70 miles from Amsterdam.

It was the second time within a week that weather had interrupted the R. A. F.'s offensive, bad conditions likewise having kept the British air armada away from Germany last Thursday night.

There was only light German aerial activity over Britain during the night and this was confined to the southwest coast, where, a communiqué said, bombs caused a few casualties and damage to residences.

Hundreds of British planes—among them many big four-engine craft capable of carrying tremendous bomb loads—participated in the Saturday night assault upon Emden, one of the main bases for German submarines harassing the Atlantic shipping lanes.

Pilots participating in the assault said enormous fires were set in the dock area.

Day of Reckoning Not So Far Off, Asserts Arnold

Mount Pleasant, Ia., June 8 (AP)—Lieut. Gen. H. H. Arnold, commander of the United States Army Air Force, declared here today that "for every one of our planes shot down, the Japs have lost four."

In an address prepared for the 100th annual commencement of Iowa Wesleyan College, at which received an honorary doctor of laws degree, the general said "the day of reckoning is not as far off as some people think."

"I am telling Tokyo that we have thousands more Colin Kellys and Butch O'Hares and Jimmy Doolittles on the way. This is just the dawn of a day of wrath."

The general, who recently returned from Europe, said he "did not fly to London to go on the defensive."

"Raids like those on Cologne and Essen were just starters to those which are to follow where U. S. and R. A. F. fighters and bombers ride the skies as a team."

The speaker said "The Axis knows that the next six months will spell victory or defeat for their forces. For the Axis it is now or never."

"The flying fortress has no peer in its field today," Arnold asserted, adding "Our B-25C medium bombers can go farther, faster and carry more bombs than the best ships of our enemies."

Regarding aircraft production, he commented, "We are shooting for quantity and quality and it looks as if we will get both."

He added our production goals, which call for 60,000 planes this year, "are being met."

He declared the United States has "the best young pilots in the world and they are proving their superiority in combat in the air."

By the end of this year, the general said, the army air force will have "over 60,000 officers and close to a million men. By June of next year, if it becomes necessary, we will double that."

Now that volume production of aircraft is under way, he said, American plants "in large number are being flown constantly by our ferrying command to areas where they will do the most good now—to Britain, Russia, the Middle East, China and Australia."

College Training Vital To Prosecution of War

Canton, N. Y., June 8 (AP)—College training is vital to prosecution of the war and lasting world peace, New York's new commissioner of education told a St. Lawrence University graduating class of 120 today.

In a prepared address, Dr. George D. Stoddard, dean of the Iowa State University Graduate School and president-elect of the University of the State of New York, held that supreme mobilization of technical and industrial power must be achieved to produce victory.

Dr. Stoddard, who assumes the education commissionership July 1, called for "an attack based on science and a counter-attack for everything that enemy laboratories can bring against us."

"We cannot afford to stop research," he warned. "We cannot lean back on any Maginot Line of knowledge already gained."

poral Ray Roland, Columbia, Iowa. Haymergren said the bombing planes usually dropped practice bombs in a salvo but that the plane involved in today's accident apparently was dropping the missiles one by one.

U. S. Wrests The Initiative

It was likely that besides the Japanese ships already on the bottom still others would never make port.

All this no doubt made a bitter tea for the 58-year-old Yamamoto who once cherished the dream of steaming triumphantly into San Francisco harbor and dictating peace terms at Washington.

As surely as official Washington figured on the Japanese to strike out to recover face for the stinging blows they took in the Coral Sea battle of the second week of May, informed quarters there predicted today a new Japanese effort to break America's growing might and regain the whiphand.

As if under orders to create all the diversion possible, Japanese submarines slipping close to the southeastern Australian shore last night shelled Sydney and New Castle, the first sea-borne attacks on the Australian mainland. The results were one casualty and no military damage.

"Nuisance Raid"

General MacArthur's headquarters called it a "nuisance raid."

Australia breathed more easily, with results in hand on the battle of Midway. Informed observers leaned to a belief that the battle had at least postponed any Japanese attempt at invasion there while in capitals of the United Nations hope blossomed for an allied offensive in the western Pacific.

In the European theatre, as the R. A. F. continued its campaign to soften up Germany, British radio counseled residents and the German-held French coastal belt today to withdraw to the interior, saying that the coastal area would become "more and more a theatre of operations."

A French language program of B. C. said that operations of "capital importance" in the struggle for the liberation of France would start in due time—when they would be of the greatest advantage to the allied cause.

The R. A. F.'s offensive, curbed only by the weather, carried the fighter command in sweeps over France last night. A railway yard near Caen was bombed, a train was strafed at Montdidier and a lone bomber attacked a German airfield at Leeuwarden, the Netherlands. The coastal command hit a medium-sized ship off the Frisian Islands. The bomber command, however, was grounded by bad weather over the continent after blasting Emden, German submarine base, Saturday night.

There was only light German aerial activity over Britain during the night. Bombing was confined to the southwest coast where a few casualties and damage to residences were reported.

There has been much evidence, including official declarations, of eventual American participation with Britain in both the aerial offensive and, eventually, in a second European land front while Germany still is tied up with Russia in the east.

Russian-German Battle

The Russian-German conflict centered today on Sevastopol, Crimean naval base, which has fought off German siege for seven months. With the Germans controlling the Kerch Peninsula and other Crimean territory, Sevastopol is the Russians' last stronghold there.

For three days it has withstood intense land and air assault and exacted from the enemy a heavy cost for his efforts to reduce it.

The Russians reported yesterday a one-week score in planes downed of 528 German craft as against 151 Russian losses.

Apart from the Sevastopol sector the battle of Russia had lapsed once again into small-scale fighting.

The fierce and bloody struggle in Libya entered its 14th day with the British inflicting "two or three" heavier assaults on Italy with the British-based attacks on Germany's European positions, struck last night at Cagliari, Sardinia.

"Several buildings in the center of the city collapsed and others were damaged," said the Italian communiqué, reporting 12 dead and 15 injured.

Deny Japs Use Poison Gas Against the Chinese

Tokyo (from Japanese broadcasts), June 8 (AP)—Tomakazu Hori, official Japanese spokesman, denied today that the Japanese were using poison gas against the Chinese.

"Japan has never used poison gas so far and does not intend to use it unless international laws are violated by the enemy," Hori said.

(President Roosevelt asserted at his press conference last week that he had information the Japanese were using poison gas and that unless Japan refrained from its use, the United States would use gas against Japan. China frequently has charged Japan with use of gas warfare.)

Cologne Toll

London, June 8 (AP)—Reuters said in a dispatch dated "At the French frontier" today that Otto Baetz, the German ambassador, had acknowledged in conversations in Paris that 11,000 to 12,000 persons were killed in the R. A. F.'s bombardment of Cologne, and that 180,000 persons had been ordered evacuated.

Navy Relief Drive Will Close This Week

Chairman John H. Saxe announces that the campaign to raise $6,600 in Ulster county for benefit of the Navy Relief Society Fund will come to a close this week. He asks that any who may have been overlooked by the solicitors hand in their contribution to Pratt Boice, treasurer for the campaign, at the Ulster County Savings Institution.

A feature of the closing week of the campaign will be the ball game which has been arranged by M. W. Herzog, campaign manager for the city of Kingston. It will be played at the municipal stadium Friday night, June 12, opposing teams being the Kingston Police Department and the Hiltzbrant Boat Yard. A scrappy contest is looked forward to.

Officers and Men Of Navy Do Not Lack Confidence

Williamsburg, Va., June 8 (AP)—Admiral Ernest J. King told the graduating class at the College of William and Mary today that the "officers and men of the navy—as representative Americans—have no lack of confidence in their ability to deal with the enemy on any where near equal terms."

"At the beginning of this war, for a variety of reasons," said the commander in chief of the United States fleet, "those terms were decidedly unequal and in favor of the enemy . . . We have already made some progress in overcoming those inequalities."

"Our capacity for production is well known. Our trained man power is increasing steadily under an accelerated program. A good share of our naval forces have had the necessary seasoning."

"What is more important," he added, "we believe the American man is unequalled as an intelligent and fearless fighter."

Admiral King, who received an honorary degree of doctor of laws at today's exercises closing the 249th session of the college, declared he was "confident that we shall win this war, and that not only will our freedom be preserved, but that of untold millions be restored to them."

Schmeling vs. Neusel

Rome (From Italian Broadcasts), June 8 (AP)—Max Schmeling, one-time heavyweight champion of the world, will defend his European title in September against Walter Neusel, the German delegate to the Association of European Professional Pugilists announced today. Vittorio Mussolini, son of the premier, was elected chairman of the association. The September bout will be Schmeling's first since the battle of Crete in which he participated as a paratrooper soldier and was wounded.

Private Walter B. Egoff remained in the plane. The co-pilot, Lieut. R. W. Depke, Radioman-Sgt. F. R. Luke, and a passenger, Lt. Col. Borror, bailed out. All five were picked up in the surf by coast guardsmen. They said none was seriously injured.

Army Bomber Crashes

Margate City, N. J., June 8 (AP)—An army bomber was forced into a crash in the surf 50 feet off the Margate city beach because of lack of fuel shortly after midnight (E.W.T.) today but all five occupants were rescued. The pilot, Captain Morris Fitzgerald, was credited two weeks ago with sinking an enemy submarine while on coast patrol. He and Mechanic

Halifax Sure Hitler Knows He Will Lose

Syracuse, N. Y., June 8 (AP)—"I feel pretty sure that Hitler himself knows that he cannot now win the war, and certainly that he can't win it unless he wins this year," Lord Halifax declared today.

The British ambassador to the United States pointed to the allies' "real and crushing" air superiority, the Russian campaign, and progress in combatting enemy U-boats as grounds for united nations' confidence and "misgivings in the Axis camp."

The war has demonstrated air superiority to be "the precondition of a large scale action on land and at sea," he asserted in a prepared address at Syracuse University's 71st commencement exercises. He added:

"Lubeck, Rostock, Cologne, Essen and Tokyo are the first real doses of a pretty potent medicine that we have long been brewing for Hitler, Hirohito and other members of the gang."

He added that the committee "has full confidence that we shall defeat the submarine." Delivery of anti-submarine craft is proceeding "in increasing numbers," Vince said, although this is the only phase of the navy's ship construction program which is not well ahead of schedule.

The navy, Vince said, did not have an adequate supply of escort craft to protect both troop transports and cargo vessels.

"Who shall say that the decision as to dividing these craft has not been sound, when it is realized that so far we have not lost a soldier of the many thousands sent overseas?" the chairman asked.

To critics of the navy who have pointed to England's success in ridding the home waters of submarines, Vince commented that "the British Isles would fit comfortably into the Gulf of Mexico and said also that England has had nearly three years' experience in combating the submarines."

ACTION!

There's plenty of action for young men of 18 and 19 in the Army—and you can choose your own branch of service!

For every red-blooded young American who wants to serve his country, this latest announcement by the Army is good news. If you are 18 and not yet 20 years old, and otherwise qualified, you can now enlist for active duty in any one of the eight combat branches you select. The opportunity to choose will no longer be yours after you pass 20.

Perhaps you have been wishing you could get into one special branch of service where you can do the things you like best. In the Infantry, for example, there's a chance for you to become a ski trooper, a parachute trooper, a machine-gunner, or a specialist in one of many other fields.

If you have a talent for radio communication, you'll find interesting opportunities in the Signal Corps. And if you're mechanically inclined, the Air Force or the Armored Force will give you just the training and experience you're looking for.

Other branches which you can join are the Cavalry, the Engineer Corps, the Field Artillery and the Coast Artillery—each a splendid training for your future. You'll be given every opportunity to learn and to advance. Men under 21 can now win Army commissions, and if you show qualities of leadership you will have your chance to attend an Officers' Candidate School, or you can qualify as an Aviation Cadet in the Army Air Forces.

You'll like the splendid new equipment—cars, trucks, tanks, planes, guns—that you'll be using. And you'll enjoy the sound physical condition, the friendships and the thrills of Army life.

Without obligating yourself in any way, you can get full information and literature at the nearest Army Recruiting and Induction Station. Discuss the idea with your parents and tell your friends about it. America needs young men like you, and needs them now. Let's go!

The letter states in that connection that "in the case of a mutual savings institution that solicits funds from the public, it is quite appropriate that directors should demonstrate their faith by maintaining reasonably substantial investments themselves."

In conclusion the letter states that, "we feel that the needs of your community provide a splendid opportunity for the development of a substantial and soundly-operated thrift and home-financing institution."

Variety of Cases in Police Court Today

James Ausanio of 646 Delaware avenue at 5:30 o'clock Sunday morning drove his truck up Wall street and turned into John street. He was arrested by the police charged with operating the truck the wrong way in a one-way street. Today in police court Ausanio pleaded guilty, and was fined $2 by Judge Matthew V. Cahill.

Frank J. Smith of Cedar street, charged with disorderly conduct in using loud language on the street, was given a suspended sentence.

George Leonard of Washington avenue, Nicholas Reis of Lomontville and Ernest Short of New York city, were arrested near the O. & W. railroad station on Saturday afternoon on charges of public intoxication. Today each was sentenced to three days in jail.

Honesty Quietness, Love And Father Divine Jolted

The fact that Honesty Quietness was the chauffeur and that he had with him Joseph Love on the front seat did not prevent Father Divine's car from being rudely banged about 8 o'clock Saturday night by a reckless driver.

The car was being driven north from the Tarrytown "Heaven," with Father Divine riding in state on the rear seat, when near Put Corners, on Route 299, it was struck in the rear fender by a car driven by Albert Dopkins of New Paltz.

Dopkins was arrested by Corporal Norman Baker and arraigned before Justice I. C. Barnes of New Paltz on a charge of reckless driving, it being stated that he had crossed the white line and struck the Divine car. Judge Barnes fined Dopkins $50.

No personal injuries were reported.

Trains in Blackouts

Albany, N. Y., June 8 (AP)—Locomotive headlights hooded and passenger windows shaded, trains will chug through blackouts in New York state, keeping traffic operations "as near normal as possible." Air raid regulations for railroads, promulgated by Major General William H. Haskell, state civilian protection director, also required wharves, docks and office buildings to be completely blacked out. Minimum signals necessary for safe train operation will stay lighted.

Roosevelt Asks $39,417,827,337

Request Would Boost War Chest to Over Total $200,000,000,000

Washington, June 8 (AP)—President Roosevelt asked Congress today for a new appropriation of $39,417,827,337 for the war department for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1943.

If granted, his request, made in a memorandum to Speaker Rayburn, would boost to more than $200,000,000,000 the war chest approved by Congress for the three years ending June 30, 1943.

Previous appropriations and authorizations for the armed services committee attaches at approximately $165,000,000,000.

In January the President asked for $6,388,091,747 for the war department's regular activities for the next fiscal year, with the understanding the amount would be increased.

"Under the change in conditions which has since come about," he said in his letter of transmittal today, "such estimates fall far short of reflecting the estimated needs of the military establishment for 1943 and their complete revision becomes necessary."

The largest single item in the total was $11,043,000,000 for the army air corps, but there was no detailed explanation of the manner in which the fund would be spent.

Traffic Deaths Down in April

First Month of 1942 to Show Reduction

Albany, N. Y., June 8 (AP)—April was the first 1942 month to show a New York traffic death reduction from the corresponding 1941 period.

April traffic fatalities totaling 184 were 4 per cent below the 192 total for the month last year, Motor Vehicle Commissioner John Spain reported today.

For the first four months of this year, traffic accidents, fatalities and injuries increased 14.9 per cent, 3.7 per cent and 15 per cent, respectively, over the corresponding 1941 period.

The upward accident and injuries trend continued in April. Accidents numbered 6,861 compared with 5,344 in April, 1941. Injuries totaled 8,812 against 6,712.

Pedestrian fatalities declined from 102 in April, 1941, to 79, a decrease of 22.5 per cent. Crossing between intersections and against signals accounted for more than 34 per cent of the pedestrian deaths.

In metropolitan New York fatalities declined 18 per cent and in urban New York 8 per cent. In rural New York, deaths rose 9 per cent.

Rain, Hailstones And High Wind Do Little Damage

A miniature cloudburst broke over Kingston about 6 o'clock Sunday evening, and in a few minutes the streets and sidewalks were flooded, as the rain and hail fell in torrents. The storm was accompanied by a high wind that did little damage in Kingston.

The Central Hudson Gas & Electric Corp., reported slight interruption to service caused by limbs being blown on the power lines on Mary's avenue, and on Delta Place.

Between 40 and 50 telephones were placed out of commission in the city it was reported by the New York Telephone Company. The damage to the telephone lines was caused by lightning and limbs being blown down on the wires.

The most telephone trouble was in the vicinity of West Chestnut street and Delaware avenue and North street.

The rain gauge in the city hall recorded a fall of .32 of an inch in the storm that broke at 6 o'clock, and during the night rain continued falling with a total precipitation of .53 of an inch.

The total precipitation so far this month is 1.18 inches of rain in Kingston.

More than 325,000 tons of sunflower seed will be consumed in Argentina this year.

Overtime Ruling By Supreme Court

No Payment Is Necessary When Salary Meets Requirements

Washington, June 8 (AP)—The Supreme Court ruled today that the federal wage-hour act does not require extra payment for overtime to employees whose fixed weekly salary is large enough to meet the minimum wage requirements of the legislation and whose hourly wage is fixed by contract.

Justice Byrnes delivered the five to four opinion which overruled the government's contention that overtime compensation under these conditions should be based on an hourly wage computed by dividing the weekly salary by the number of hours worked, regardless of how much the weekly salary exceeded the amount required by the act.

The opinion applied specifically to the A. H. Belo Corporation, publisher of the Dallas Morning News and owner of radio station WFAA.

"When employer and employee," Justice Byrnes said, "have agreed upon an arrangement which has proven mutually satisfactory we should not upset it and approve an inflexible and artificial interpretation of the act which finds no support in its text and which as a practical matter eliminates the possibility of steady income to employees with irregular hours."

Justice Byrnes said Congress had failed to provide a definition of "regular rate" of pay under the wage-hour act and that the company was within its rights in the Ruffelt hat shop, of which Saunders' father was night watchman. These fires were in a bale of furs on the second floor and in paper in a lavatory on the third floor. Discovered and put out before spreading.

March 21, 1942. Started a fire, using kerosene, in the George Hammesfahr garage. This fire went out of its own accord before getting under headway.

Among those who have investigated these various fires and who questioned Saunders without success, was Bernard Scully of New York city, representing the National Board of Fire Underwriters.

Truck Driver's Helper Charged With Homicide

New York, June 8 (AP)—Giovanni Gravagna, 26, a truck driver's helper, was arrested early today by police of the East 51st street station who charged him with homicide in the death of William H. Powers, 48, of 156 Elliot avenue, Yonkers, N. Y., an elevator operator.

Powers died in Bellevue Hospital at 4:25 a. m. apparently as a result of a fractured skull, police reported.

Detectives Fred Hans and William Chaplin said Gravagna told them he struck Powers in front of 152 East 45th street about 2:45 a. m. when Powers attempted to interfere in a fight between Gravagna and an unidentified man.

The detectives said that Powers apparently suffered the skull fracture when he fell to the sidewalk after Gravagna's blow.

negotiating a regular hourly rate with its employees.

"Presumably Congress refrained from attempting such a definition," Justice Byrnes said, "because the employment relationships to which the act would apply were so various and unpredictable."

"And that which it was unwise for Congress to do, this court should not do. . . .

"Where the question is as close as this one, it is well to follow the congressional lead and to afford the fullest possible scope to agreements among the individuals who are actually affected."

"This policy is based upon a common sense recognition of the special problems confronting employer and employee in businesses where the work hours fluctuate from week to week and from day to day."

"Many such employees value the security of a regular weekly income. They want to operate on a family budget, to make commitments for payments on homes and automobiles and insurance."

SCARCE BOOKS

High among the scarcities that are impoverishing English life, come books.

Destruction by bombing is one cause. In the attack on London December 29, 1940, about 6,000,000 volumes were destroyed; and there have been other damaging raids, with incendiary fires galore.

Government priorities have taken much of the available stock of paper, already short enough. A best-seller can be produced only by the labor of several plants working at the same time, while other orders lie waiting. Many important books have to drop out of print, while others never get published. But one and one-quarter per cent of the total available supply of paper is allotted to books.

Books are needed now as they never have been before, with other amusements stopped by the nightly blackout. Every day and night thousands of air raid wardens, fire guards, ambulance crews and the like are on duty, with a spare hour to be occupied when routine is done and no enemy is overhead. Troops on lonely stations have their evenings to while away. To all of these, books are a crying need, whether for instruction or recreation.

One story tells it all. Lately a small-town English bookseller sent a London publisher an order for 1,000 assorted novels—any novels whatsoever. The publisher could let him have 150 and no more.

This country is not yet reduced to England's shortage, but the need here is also great.

THE NEED FOR NURSES

It takes a young woman with a strong physique, a poised mentality, a willingness to do anything necessary and take whatever comes, to make a good army nurse. It takes training, too; but given the first qualifications of good steel, hospital discipline will temper and polish the tool.

It takes high qualifications to make a good soldier, too, but the discipline of the army camp turns basic abilities into strong powers, ready to use.

Many young women, with other careers in mind as first or second choices, will be going into nursing this year and next. They will find that in the long run they will lose nothing. Nursing experience and training will deepen and strengthen whatever powers they had to start with. After the war, they can enter the postponed careers and make a success of them, just as the boys will do. They will be bigger and more adequate people, starting in their chosen fields, than if they had entered those fields a few years before. Time lost will soon be regained.

If they choose to remain in nursing, they will have a competence over and above that of the girls who have known that field only in easier times. As wives and mothers of families, they will find their duties easier.

The need at the present time is very great. Graduates of schools and colleges this June should take it seriously.

NO EARLY PEACE

Neutrals are beginning to say that the Germans are licked. Not that the war is over, or anywhere near that consummation. But it looks increasingly now as if Germany cannot win, and many of the Germans themselves begin to think so. If they had not accepted that view before, the tremendous British bombings lately may have driven the point home.

Yet there is no talk of giving up, and will not be for a long time to come. Hitler himself, presumably, will insist on fighting it out to the last German. And other Germans of power and influence doubtless have good reason to insist on fighting on as long as there is a possible chance of victory, or stalemate, or a peace on generous terms.

Unfortunately for the latter group, made up largely of those who have profited or sought to profit by war, the Allies are unlikely to let them get away with their loot. That loot includes $30,000,000,000 to $40,000,000,000 of wealth that the Nazis have carried off to the Fatherland from the countries they have crushed and looted. There will have to be recompense and restoration in any possible peace treaty, and it will take time and heavy punishment to bring the "master race" to any such state of mind.

BARUCH

Bernard Baruch is a unique institution. He might be characterized as an "Elder Statesman" who has never held an elective job. He served with great distinction as chairman of the War Industries Board in the last war. He has been a confidential adviser to Presidents, regardless of political considerations so long that "the memory of man runneth not to the contrary." Apparently he has never drawn a salary from government. He is the "Nestor" of American public life, a wise and disinterested statesman, above party and class.

It is good to see him accepting now an official position as adviser on the Army's $30,000,000,000 ordnance program, along with other prominent business leaders—K. T. Keller of the Chrysler Corporation, Benjamin F. Fairless of the U. S. Steel Corporation and Louis H. Brown of the Johns-Manville Corporation. All four are on the staff of Maj. Gen. Levin H. Campbell, Jr. The more of such business men the government can annex to help handle the vast war job, the better it will be for the war effort, and for the federal Treasury at the end of the war.

It's time now for Uncle Sam to make a couple of touchdowns, and nobody cares whether it's through the line or around the end.

The war may end when the last German church bell is melted down and shot away.

All the men in the world are vain
If unsupported by tank or plane

PEPPERMINT

I have definite recollections of my grandmother who, while most generous in every way, was unusually strict about the Sabbath day. I thought I had found out something bad she had done one Sunday when I saw her take out a little bag of candy peppermints and put one in her mouth during church service. Hastening to my mother I told her about this awful deed. My mother gently informed me that peppermint helped grandmother's indigestion and it was quite "proper" that she should eat peppermints whenever she found it necessary.

It was many years after when I learned that peppermint did help digestion or prevent indigestion as I had thought that peppermint was put into medicines to disguise or hide the taste of unpleasant drugs. Investigations a few years ago showed that peppermint actually helps digest food in the stomach so that it is ready to pass into the small intestine about one-half an hour or more sooner than when no peppermint is taken.

For some years we have known that peppermint helped to relieve gas attacks and many have thought that this was due to slowness of digestion in the stomach and that the peppermint "lifted" the gas from the stomach or absorbed it in some manner.

For years it has been known that most cases of gas in the stomach, in fact, most pain and distress in the stomach (aside from ulcer or cancer) is caused by sluggishness of liver and gall bladder which may cause a flowing upwards of bile into the stomach instead of downward to the small intestine. That oil of peppermint not only helps in the digestion of food but also helps to stimulate movement of the gall bladder is now reported.

The most frequent cause of this slowness of the gall bladder in emptying bile is a spasm of the neck of the gall bladder. It has been found that oil of peppermint removes this spasm; bile flows downward and does its work in preparing fats to be absorbed into the blood. Increased bile flow means that the large bowel will also be stimulated, thus preventing constipation.

Oil of peppermint is, of course, too powerful a drug for self treatment. Two or three peppermint candies after meals might relieve gas pains in many individuals.

Constipation

It has been estimated that well over half the population is constipated. Constipation decreases our efficiency constantly. Send today for this new booklet by Dr. Barton dealing in such a helpful way with this subject, entitled "Constipation" (No. 13). To obtain it just send ten cents and a three-cent stamp, to cover cost of handling and mailing, to The Bell Library, Post Office Box 75, Station O, New York, N. Y., mentioning the Kingston Daily Freeman.

"AT CENTURY'S TURN"

By H. L. VAN DEUSEN

Business at the Kingston post office was growing to such an extent in 1925, that Postmaster Walter P. Crane took the matter up with the federal post office department, and as a result it was decided to add three regular letter carriers to the force.

On November 16, 1925, Floyd Spencer, John Hess and Harold Johnson were named as regular carriers and assumed their duties.

All three men had been on the eligible list for five years and had been serving with the department as substitutes.

At the turn of the century one of the best known hotel men in Kingston and Ulster county was Alonzo E. Winne, who died on November 19, 1925, in his home on St. James street.

Mr. Winne came to Kingston in the early 80's and took over the management of the old Eagle Hotel on Main street with the late Benjamin J. Winne, who in later years was succeeded in the hotel management by his son, James S. Winne.

Alonzo E. Winne continued with the hotel management until he retired in 1908. During the many years he was engaged in the hotel business he became widely known.

Under the management of the Winnes the Eagle Hotel became one of the best known hotels in the Hudson river valley, and its prestige did not diminish until the Stuyvesant Hotel was built.

Today all that is left of the historic old hotel is the site, as the hotel has been demolished.

Mayor Morris Block on October 9, 1925, appointed the late Samuel M. Watts as a member of the zoning board to fill the vacancy caused by the death of J. Graham Rose. Mr. Watts for a number of years was active in Republican politics in the city and during the Canfield administration had served as alderman-at-large of the Common Council. For a number of years he was engaged in the retail coal business as a member of the firm of Watts & Tammany on East Street, and later became manager of the Kingston Coal Co.

His brother, Harry S. Watts, was also active for years in the Republican ranks, and served for a number of years as a member and president of the Municipal Civil Service Commission.

Among the members of the civil service board I recall such leading men as L. Stuart Williams, Howard R. St. John, Peter Crough, James McAndrew, Attorney Augustus Shufeldt, L. E. Dunne, Walter J. Weeks and others whose names at present elude me.

Washington In Wartime

By Jack Stinnett

Washington—For the first time in history, so far as I can find out, this nation is publishing at its own expense a monthly magazine and a twice-monthly "News Letter" for consumption solely in western hemisphere countries outside our own borders.

If this were purely a propaganda effort shoved down the reading throats of our sister republics, it wouldn't be worth mentioning. But "En Guardia," a 10-by-14 inch slick paper magazine, filled with beautiful black-and-white and color photographs, started nine months ago with a tirade 50,000 circulation, has now reached 200,000 and the demand far exceeds the supply. "The American News Letter"—Circulated for Private Information in the Western Hemisphere—is no older but just as much in demand.

It's a four-page, un-illustrated pamphlet, printed in English, Spanish and Portuguese. The magazine is printed only in the two latter languages, although there has been one edition recently in French, also for Latin American consumption.

Behind these two publications is an amazing publishing story. Under a contract let by Nelson Rockefeller's Office of Inter-American Affairs, they are published and edited by the Business Publishers International Corporation. A Washington editorial staff, headed by J. C. Stark, works hand in glove with Frank Jamieson, in Rockefeller's office. These two staffs produce and edit "En Guardia" and the "News Letter."

There is one amusing story in connection with the sudden popularity of "En Guardia" in South America. Although it has been sent only to the highest official circles, it has been cropping up on the newsstands in South America's cities (there never has been a copy released from here for sale) and the "bootleg price" is purportedly twice that charged for the most expensive United States magazine sold commercially in those countries.

There is talk now that "En Guardia"—or a little sister under another name—will be published in a cheaper edition and circulated (at a without cost) to the hundreds of thousands who apparently are clamoring for it. The Rockefeller office won't comment, but off-the-record sources admit the vast expansion of the biggest publishing effort of World War II is under discussion.

(Tomorrow—What's In "En Guardia.")

Mr. Jerome A. Hodes
Secretary
Ulster and Sullivan
Marketing and Poultry Co.
Inc.
High Falls, New York

Dear Mr. Hodes:

We have your letter of May 1942, addressed to Mr. Leon E. person, stating that persons your area have refused to use egg cases unless the purchaser is willing to buy one new with each used case. The price with a new case is 65¢ and the used case is sold at cents.

Maximum prices for used cases are established in Maximum Price Regulation No. 117, A of this regulation is enclosed. I will note that New York state the Regulation, and that the Regulation recognizes two types cases, a completely reconditioned case and an unconditioned case. Maximum prices are established for these cases at various levels the distribution process.

The practice of requiring purchaser to buy a new case along with a used case is presently prohibited in the Egg Section of the Regulation. In other words, it is a violation of Regulation, and hence illegal, require the purchaser to buy new case as a condition to securing a used case.

This Office is vitally concerned with enforcing the Maximum Price Regulation for used cases. If you will submit immediately the names and addresses of those persons who have been violating the Regulation, either an excessive price or by requiring the purchaser to take a new case along with a used case, we assure you that prompt action will be taken and that no mention will be made of your name.

This Office appreciates your helpfulness in calling to our attention the situation which exists in your area.

Sincerely yours,

J. D. Rockefeller Offers to Assist Wiltwyck School

John D. Rockefeller, Jr., has offered to contribute $50,000 to the non-sectarian, inter-racial committee which is seeking to raise $50,000 to save the Wiltwyck School for Boys. Announcement of Mr. Rockefeller's offer was made last night by the Rev. Eugene C. Carder, D.D., associate pastor of Riverside Church, 490 Riverside Drive. The gift is contingent upon raising the balance of the $50,000 fund this month.

The Wiltwyck committee has similar contingent pledges of $10,000 from Marshall Field and $5,000 from J. Willard Hayden on behalf of the Charles Hayden Foundation.

Dr. Carder also made public this letter from William Hodson, commissioner of the New York City Department of Welfare:

"I am delighted to endorse the campaign which your committee has undertaken in connection with the Wiltwyck School for Boys. It is of the utmost importance that the work of this school be continued and extended. Facilities for the care of Negro children are pitifully inadequate and it would be nothing short of a calamity if Wiltwyck was not able to continue and expand its work.

"You have my complete endorsement and I wish you every success. I will be glad to co-operate with you in every possible way."

Among those who have recently agreed to serve on the Wiltwyck Board are the Rev. Shelton Hale Bishop and Commissioner Ernest I. Pugmire of the Salvation Army.

The New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society is giving up the Wiltwyck School June 30 for lack of funds. At the urgent request of the Children's Court judges, Dr. Carder organized the non-sectarian inter-racial group in an attempt to save Wiltwyck, which is the only institution for the rehabilitation of eight-to-twelve-year-old Protestant Negro boys remanded by New York City's Children's Court.

Dr. Carder has received letters from both mothers whose boys have been at Wiltwyck and from the boys themselves urging that Wiltwyck be saved if possible.

Local 40 and 8 Seeks Additional Decks of Cards

Bridge clubs and lovers of card games in general responded most generously to the appeal of Volunteer 381, of the "40 and 8" service organization within the American Legion, for playing cards to the men in the service.

Over 60 decks are now at hand at the Memorial Building, 18 West O'Reilly street, said Chef de Gare Daniel W. Benton, of Volunteer 381, Ulster county. These playing cards are in great demand by the men in the service and receive hard use. The army doesn't issue them, and most of the time there isn't any way to get a deck.

Rummage through the house for the deck you no longer need, said Mr. Benton. Send it right on to the Memorial Building, 18 West O'Reilly street. Just mark the package "for our men in service" and the "40 and 8" will do the rest.

If you cannot bring them in person you are asked to telephone 1914, and someone will call for the package. There is an assurance from the army that the cards will be sent overseas if we get them to the port of embarkation.

Little Gardens Club Studies

Red Flowers for Garden
Little Gardens Club met at the home of Mrs. Harry Myers on Broadway, Friday afternoon, June 5. Preceding the meeting the members visited Mrs. Myers' garden which presented a charming picture with pink roses and many other flowers in full bloom. The topic for the day "Red in the Garden Picture," was read by Miss Lottie Johnson, and offered many excellent suggestions to the gardeners who wished to have this color as a garden theme. Quoting from Miss Johnson's paper: "Red, the color of warmth, marks the beginning of the ascending scale, and symbolizes courage, health and vigor. It takes real courage to build a red garden, for red is the one color that can be either a thing of beauty or a nerve-wrecking monstrosity. It is wise to choose plants at a nursery when they are in full bloom, even though it delays planting for one season. Just any shade or tint will not do in a red garden; the color must be definite. Most successful are the tints and tones of red with a blue cast used with white."

For early bloom Saucer magnolia is one of the best, the blossoms ranging from white through rose to purple red. Blooming at the same time is Charles Viburnum, and is extremely sweet scented. Next in time of bloom come the weigelas, available in a complete range of tones and tints of red. The shrub roses, not to be confused with the hybrid varieties, have a definite place in the garden. Rosa rugosa is the well-known Asiatic rose, and the color range is from white to carmine. It is hardy and the plant is surprisingly free from disease.

"Every red garden should include groups of the little Anthony Waterer Spirea. Planted in groups of three, this compact shrub is a delightful addition. Then comes the peonies and the deep red, oriental poppies, garden pinks in color from white to deepest crimson, painted daisies, sweet william, foxgloves, coralbells, some penstemons and columbines. By July one can begin to depend on annuals for color, such as sweet sul-tans, pink and red cornflowers, cosmos and annual larkspur, nicotiana for fragrance as well as color and glowing deep red zinnias. "A red garden will look much smaller than a garden of equal size in blue, but this effect can be lessened considerably by the use of plenty of white."

A new member, Mrs. Edward Fitzgerald, was welcomed into the club. At the conclusion of the business meeting delicious refreshments were served with Mrs. S. K. Clapp presiding at the tea table.

Good Taste Today

By Emily Post

(Author of "Etiquette," "The Personality of a House," "The Book of Social Usage," etc.)

CHILDREN SHOULD NOT BE COMPELLED TO KISS PERSONS THEY HARDLY KNOW

Young children, whose manners are "beautiful," are taught to offer their hands to those of their parents' friend who greet them or to whom they are introduced. As the child's hand is taken, a little boy should bow, and a little girl, curtsy. But under no circumstances should either be made to kiss people.

This is in answer to a mother who says: "While we would like very much to have our children's manners considered beautiful, we wonder whether they must be made to kiss all older relatives and friends who come to see us? We have four young children, very nearly alike in ages but very unlike in temperament. Jane the oldest—she's 6—is very responsive and affectionate; but John, who is 5, doesn't even like to kiss his father and me. The twins, who are 3, are very fickle. One time they like a person, the next time they don't. With them it all depends upon how they happen to feel at the moment."

In further answer to this, it may be that the moods of the twins should be tactfully guided. On the other hand, even though children of 3 are unlikely to hurt by germs—from which a new baby must be protected—all children should be given the right to make the free gesture of running up to hug someone whom they love very much, but not be forced to kiss someone whom they scarcely know.

Clothes at Garden Party
Dear Mrs. Post: I am going to be co-hostess at an afternoon tea which is being given in the garden of the other hostess. Will you please tell us about our clothes? Shall we wear street-length dresses or long dresses, and since the party is outdoors, shall we wear hats? I know that at the tea party which is given indoors, the hostesses do not wear hats.

Answer: Hats please! Hair blown by the wind is always untidy and rarely becoming to a grown person. Long dresses are usually worn, but short ones are equally proper, especially in war time when everything suggestive of formality seems out of place.

Dear Mrs. Post: Is it permissible to give a second child the same name as that given to a child who died several years ago?

Baseball Draft Coast League Filled With Former Big-League Players

By SAM JACKSON

Wide World Feature Writer
San Francisco—The old men of baseball, those Methuselahs who are bent under the weight of 35 years or so, are thinking of throwing away their crutches and catching a train for the East.

As the draft catches up with the younger players in the major leagues there will be large, vacant spaces in the lineups. Unless managers want to entrust their pennant hopes to high school kids, it looks as if they'll have to call on some of the old tried-and-true.

The records to fall were in the 100-yard dash, 220-yard hurdles, discus and shot put. Harry Stahl of Kingston snapped one of the marks in the 220-yard hurdles in the time of 27.2. He defeated Taylor of Newburgh and Vernoy of Middletown.

In the 880 Ron of Kingston also came in first in the time of 2:09.3. Fitzgerald of Kingston placed second, and Steeger, also of the Maroons, came in third.

The performers of Coaches G. Warren Kias and Loyne Connick also won a first in the javelin with Remus having a toss of 157 feet and seven inches. Bud Luedtke finished third.

Ray Bullock of Port Jervis also broke the 100-yard dash record in the time of 16 seconds flat. He defeated Bud Gildersleeve of Kingston, Tannebaum of Ellenville and Schild of Middletown.

In the shot put Ralph Petrillo of Newburgh established a new mark of 46 feet and 3 1/4 inches. Ramish of Port Jervis finished second while Stahl of Kingston had third. Chumas of Newburgh placed fourth.

Tom Ranish of Port Jervis had a toss of 139 feet and 5 1/4 inches in the discus for a new record. Florio and Chumas finished second and third while Mapes of Monticello had fourth.

The complete point-scoring follows: Newburgh 42 1/2, Kingston 39, Port Jervis 26, Middletown 26, Monticello five, and Ellenville three.

State Has Maple Sweets
Albany, N. Y., June 8 (AP)—Add facts worth knowing (for when your sugar ration book runs out): New York state produced 933,000 gallons of maple syrup and 177,000 pounds of maple sugar this spring, 53 per cent more than in 1941, agriculture department estimates.

Seeks Bond Support
Albany, N. Y., June 8 (AP)—Governor Lehman has called on New Yorkers to provide funds to prosecute "the enemies who are now assaulting our every American ideal" in proclaiming June 14 to "war bond pledge campaign days."

Denver Golfer Leads His Qualifiers After Being Knocked Out; Jones Tops in Atlanta

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
New York, June 8 (AP)—The Hale America National Open golf tournament, being played to provide funds for the Navy Relief Society and the U.S.O., also has produced a golfer knocked out by a billiard ball.

Charles (Babe) Lind, Big Seven Conference champion, led the qualifiers from the Denver district although made unconscious for 15 minutes when struck above the right eye by a wandering cue ball while watching a locker-room pool game during the lunch hour.

Before the mishap yesterday he duplicated his 70 of Saturday but after the blow the best he could do was a 74 for a 214 that was one stroke over par for the 54 holes.

Twelve of the 13 district tournaments that determine the make-up of the final field at Chicago's Ridgemoor Club June 18 to 21 have been completed and the Los Angeles test gets under way today.

It is at conclusion only 105 golfers from the 1,540 who started the three-tier competitions last month will remain. Eighty will have worked their way through both local and district qualifying meets; two Canadians will come direct from a Toronto local while 22 top-flight shotmakers and Crooner Bing Crosby are eligible by invitation.

Although he received one of the bids, Bob Jones competed in the district meet at Atlanta. The old master trimmed a dozen years off his swing and five strokes off par to lead the field with 67-71-67—205, six strokes less than his nearest Dixie rival.

Bob Gutwein, young Ohio pro, was the pacemaker for the big Cincinnati field with his 211 aggregate but two of the day's best shots were made by golfers surviving a sudden death playoff.

Fred Gronauer of Indianapolis, sank a 48-foot putt on the first extra hole and gained one of the berths while Billy Burke of Cleveland, the 1931 open champion, and Art Smith of Cincinnati, played until the fifth where Burke chipped in from 45 feet out.

Frank Commisso, Rochester pro, led the qualifiers at Buffalo with a 211 card. Ed Furgol, public links sharpshooter, showed the way at Detroit with 221; lanky Ray Gafford of Fort Worth, was the best at Dallas with a three-over-par 213; Harry Cooper's 212 was good enough for the medal at Minneapolis and George Whitehead's towering 235 showed the way at Tulsa.

Feature of the qualifying completed Saturday was the success of Mike, Paul and Joe Turnesa at Bloomfield, N. J. Brother Jim, a corporal at Fort Dix, already was eligible because of his exploits at the recent P.G.A. tourney.

Newburgh Takes Loop Tennis Meet; Kingston Is Next
Coach Theron Culver's Kingston High School tennis squad placed second in the DUSO meet at Newburgh Saturday afternoon.

The Maroons collected a total of five points which was good for second place. Newburgh finished on top with nine.

Kingston picked up four points in the scoring ledger when Neumont Culver defeated Lewis of Newburgh in the final round by 3-6, 6-3 and 6-3. The other Kingston tally came by Marc Connelly's 6-1 and 6-2 victories over Shapiro of Monticello in the semi-finals.

Gus Koch of Kingston also defeated DeKay of Newburgh in the semis by 2-6, 6-3 and 7-5. Newburgh finished first with nine points, Kingston in second with five, Monticello third with one and Ellenville failed to garner a point.

Rec-Pocono Game Called Off; Dodger Rookies Will Play Wednesday Night
for Stroudsburg and he went through the Kingston batting order in easy fashion. He struck out three in his three-inning stint.

Dodger Rookies Wednesday
Turk Karam's Brooklyn Dodger Rookies will be the next attraction into the stadium for an arduous game Wednesday night.

Under the watchful eye of Art Dede, former Dodger catcher, and now pilot of the Rookies, the club has come up with another strong outfit this year despite the fact that many of the 1941 performers are now playing in organized ball.

The Dodger Rookies will have Johnny Korniewicz, hard-hitting second baseman from St. Francis College; Lee Dvulet, catcher from Rutgers; Cal Abrams of Brooklyn College and Frank Claflone, Lincoln High hurler of Brooklyn.

Claflone hurled a no-hitter against Curtis High last week in the semi-finals of the annual P. S. A. L. 1941 team. However, two walks, a double steal and a passed ball helped the visitors to tally two runs.

Jimmy Halpern was the starter for Stroudsburg and he went through the Kingston batting order in easy fashion. He struck out three in his three-inning stint.

Last Night; Nagy Was on Mound
The Kingston Recreation and the Stroudsburg Poconos played three innings of their scheduled Sunday night game at the municipal stadium last night before Harry Desmond, umpire-in-chief, decided to call it quits for the night.

Stroudsburg had a 2 to 0 lead before another shower came down and ruined another contest for Kingston, the second night in a row. The Rec-Albany game last Wednesday also was lost due to the bad weather.

Steve Nagy, the brilliant Seton Hall flinger started on the mound for Kingston and was touched for two runs in the first half of the third inning. The Poconos appeared much stronger than did the 1941 team. Nagy permitted but one hit. However, two walks, a double steal and a passed ball helped the visitors to tally two runs.

Jimmy Halpern was the starter for Stroudsburg and he went through the Kingston batting order in easy fashion. He struck out three in his three-inning stint.

good tricks of the kind in peacetime. One of the most promising candidates in the war emergency is Pitcher Hal Turpin of Seattle, who never even has had a trial in the majors.

Pitched No-Hitter
In his middle thirties, Turpin for the last few seasons has been the steady pitcher in the Coast League, and this year pitched a no-hit, no-runner.

Jo-Jo White, outfielder who was with Detroit in pennant winning years, is still capable of holding down an emergency berth, though not a robust hitter.

A veteran American League catcher, Joe Glenn, has made a grand comeback with Oakland after a poor 1941 season in the American Association. Oakland also has Jack Salveson, a respected right-handed pitcher, who has had tryouts with the Giants and White Sox.

Also, Charley Root
Charley Root, the old Chicago Cub "fireman" is sure he'll get another chance in the majors. He has been a consistent winning pitcher for Hollywood. The Stars also have Ham Schulte, a smooth, steady second baseman, once with the Phillies and Yanks.

If being a big winner with a losing club means anything, Ad Liska, submarine right-handed pitcher, ought to attract an offer. He has had trials with Washington and Pittsburgh.

Another who saw lengthy service in the majors and now handling an assignment competently in Coast League competition is Roy Hughes, second baseman for the Angels, who played with Cleveland a few years ago.

Women's Softball League Will Start On Tuesday Night

Dodgerettes Are Slated to Meet Baltz Club at Barmann's Park; Game at 6:45 P.M.

The first game of the newly organized Women's City Softball League will be played at Barmann Park Tuesday evening when the Pleasure Yacht Dodgerettes will meet the Baltz Lassies. This game will get under way at 6:45 o'clock and promises to be a real battle. Both teams have been practicing very conscientiously and both are anxious to get off on the right foot.

Wednesday evening at Block Park the Gallops will meet a strong Fuller team in the second game of the season. This game will also start at 6:45 o'clock.

This league will be composed of seven teams and all have a tower of strength behind them. After observing practice sessions during the last few weeks it has been noted that the majority of the girls play a brand of ball almost equal to that of the men's league so spectators will be in for a real treat when they witness any of these games.

Violators of Gas Rationing to Be Given Hearings

New York, June 8 (AP)—Service station operators reported as "possible violators" of gasoline rationing after a surprise week-end check-up will be asked to report for hearings, probably on Thursday, at Office of Price Administration offices in New York, Philadelphia and Newark, N. J., the regional office of the O.P.A. said today.

The check-up, made by 1,000 volunteer checkers Saturday, showed that about 10 per cent of the operators investigated sold gas without punching ration cards, or sold more than the amount allowed on cards, an O.P.A. spokesman said.

Out of about 1,000 returns already received from the three cities, the spokesman continued, slightly more than 100 listed "possible violators."

While the rationing law permits a fine running to $10,000 and a jail sentence for violation, Walter Gellhorn, O.P.A. counsel, said that "we are not going to make the penalties in this first group of cases as stringent as they might be later on."

Punishment in the first cases, he said, might be withdrawal of the service station's right to obtain more gasoline.

Destruction of Antiques Is Traced to Two Boys

Former Supervisor Hugh Ferguson of the town of Ulster and Mrs. Ferguson returned home recently to Lake Katrine, after spending the winter in Florida and found that during their absence the barn had been entered and a number of pieces of valuable antique furniture destroyed or badly damaged.

Troopers Reilly and Judge of the B.C.L. were notified and after investigation picked up two nine-year-old boys, who will be arraigned before Judge Conway in children's court, charged with malicious destruction of property. The boys are said to have used croquet mallets with disastrous effect on a mahogany table, a dresser, organ, chairs, etc. The table, of solid mahogany, is badly damaged and banged, keys and other parts of the organ were smashed, chairs were broken and other damage done.

It was estimated that it would cost around $200 or more to repair as far as possible the damaged articles, outside of their lessened value as antiques.

Alva C. Burger Pleads Guilty to Drunken Driving

Alvah C. Burger, Jr., of 145 Pine street, pleaded guilty on a charge of operating an automobile while intoxicated on Broadway, and was fined $50 and his driving license revoked in police court by Judge Matthew V. Cahill today.

New York, June 8 (AP)—Rallying power waned in today's stocks market notwithstanding the best was news since the start of the world conflict.

Leaders exhibited mild upward tendencies at the opening. Plus signs soon were reduced in many cases. Dealings slowed appreciably. Although small gains were well distributed near the four hour, numerous issues were unchanged or off a shade.

Wall Street obviously was disappointed that there was no real celebration over the big United States air-naval victory in the mid-Pacific. It was suggested, however, that the Chinese and Russian pictures still were cloudy and that last week's market upswing, best since January, may have inspired speculative and investment caution.

Bondage were steady. Major commodities rose briskly. Among stocks Coca-Cola got up several points on a few sales. American telephone tacked on a point. Moderately improved most of the time were Chrysler, Woolworth, Pennsylvania, Union Carbide, Dome Mines, International Harvester and U. S. Gypsum.

Two Grand Juries Now in Session At Court House

Two grand juries were in session today at the court house, a most unusual incident. The grand juries summoned for attendance at the June term of county court were meeting this morning and the grand juries summoned for the May term of supreme court were called back at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Last week when the May grand jury panel made its report to Justice Schirck it was stated that the jurors would return on June 24 to consider a matter which the attorney general's office was to present. However a change was made in that arrangement and the members were summoned back today. It had been rumored that the return of the May grand jurors was to consider the controversy which has been going on for some time among members and former officials of Local 17, Laborers Union. Irregularities have been charged and at a recent election new officers were elected. Conduct of the union affairs for some time back have been under fire for months.
